WIZETRADE TEAMS UP WITH RUSTY WALLACE TEAM TO SPONSOR NASCAR BUSCH SERIES CAR FOR VEGAS RACE
First-time sponsorship kicks off 'Win with Wizetrade' campaign

(DALLAS—March 6, 2007) Officials of GlobalTec, makers of the Wizetrade trend-recognition software for stock traders, and RWI Racing, LLC, announced today that Wizetrade will sponsor RWI's No. 66 stock car for the Sam's Town 300 NASCAR Busch Series race scheduled for March 10 at Las Vegas Motor Speedway. Driven by third-generation racing star, Steve Wallace, the No. 66 Dodge Charger will be fully adorned with the Wizetrade logo and the "Win with Wizetrade" slogan for the race that will be televised nationally on ABC Sports.

Rusty Wallace, a legend of NASCAR, owner of the RWI Racing team and a Wizetrade customer, said, "We're very excited about our new partnership with Wizetrade, which has opened the door for tens of thousands of individual investors to take an active role in reaching their financial goals through trading in the stock market. We're also excited, as we are with all of our partners, about doing what we can to help the folks at Wizetrade reach their business objectives and drive their growth."

This is the first time Dallas-based GlobalTec, a company that has taught more than 100,000 people how to trade the markets, has entered the realm of marketing through a sports sponsorship.

"We realize a lot of our customers are NASCAR fans; the thrill of racing and the thrill of trading can be very similar," GlobalTec President John Dankovchik said. "Race fans across the nation identify their driver by the brand on the car. This is an outstanding opportunity to bring national exposure to the Wizetrade brand."

"We're proud to align with Rusty Wallace's team," Dankovchik continued. "Rusty is a true racing legend, RWI is a class organization, and Steve Wallace is one of the bright, up-and-coming stars of NASCAR."
